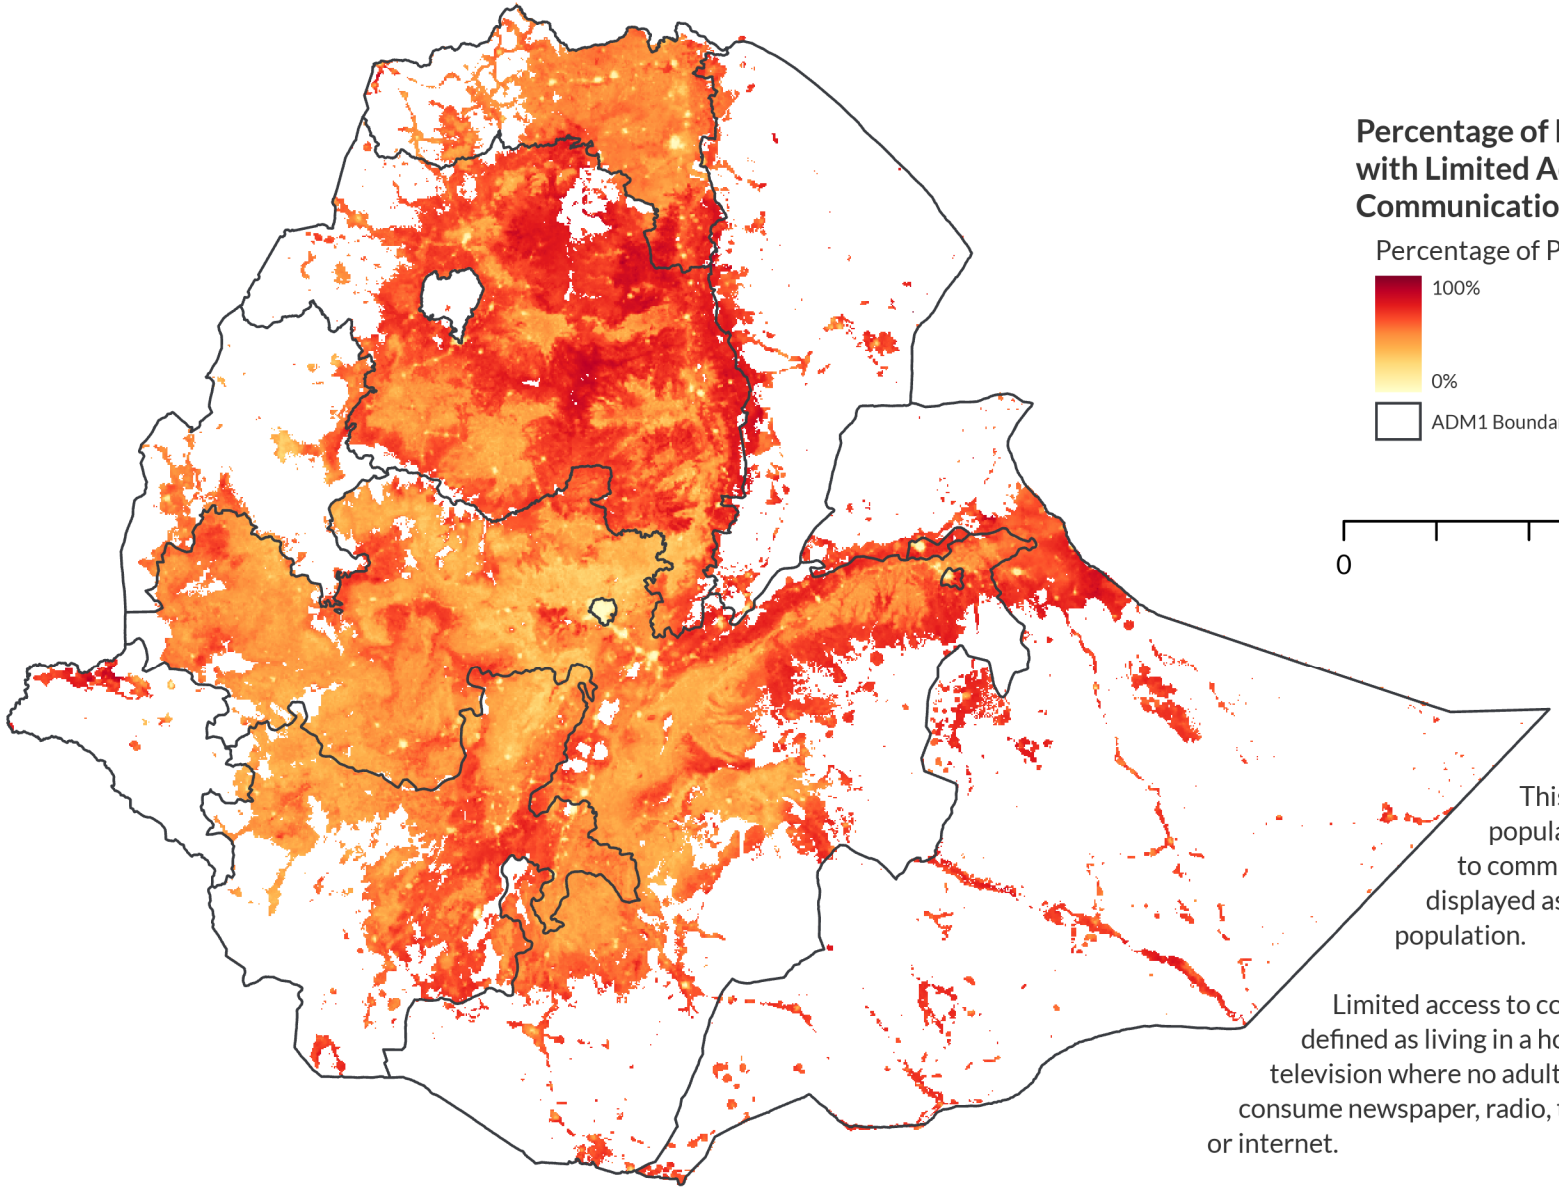
Ethiopia Communications Access Risk Profile



This profile identifies populations with limited access to communication media and is displayed as a percentage of the population.

Limited access to communication media is defined as living in a household without a radio or television where no adult members regularly consume newspaper, radio, television, or internet.

Source: Risk Profile: Fraym, GRID3; ADM1 Boundaries: geoBoundaries v. 3.0.0